Recognition for a Positive Contribution

Student Council

Thank you for the extra fun you inject into school life.

Citizenship

---

In recognition for kindness or service to others or the community

Grit

---

In recognition of sustained effort over time, even when things are hard

Senior Students who are part of the One to One Reading Program

---

For helping junior students improve their reading

Brooklyn Matic

---

Brooklyn is hard working in an out of school focused on her education goals, kind and respectful

Shanti Proctor

---

Always strive to achieve excellence even if it takes several attempts.
She always put in the best effort.

Aliya Mutch

---

Aliya is a hard worker who thrives for greatness. She is hard on herself and is always kind. Good work Aliya.

Simone Charbonneau and Adalie Shook

---

Thank you for helping greet students with a smile.

Brodie Rempel

---

Brodie demonstrates perseverance over time. Even when a skill is new to him and proves to be difficult.

He is not deterred by arduous tasks requiring sustained attention to details.

Alyssa Ball

---

Alyssa is working on a big project in Senior Wood. There are lots of components and pieces and she is doing an amazing job of working through the project in a structured organized fashion.

Jed Fast

---

Consistent work ethic. Open to assist others. Extra clean up.

Johnathan Yurkiw

Johnny holds the back door open for staff every morning as we are coming in. This is incredibly helpful/thoughtful as we typically have both hands full carry bags and it is difficult to get our keys. Thank you Johnny.

Abby Eby, Darren Masse, Tristan Cool

These three students are taking Wood 9 for the second time. They have been incredibly helpful with assisting their peers allowing Mr. Fraser to show students new machines like the table saw one on one.

Thank you

Kileigh Foisy

---

Consistent work ethic and effort.
Running the knitting club at lunch.

Kathryn Burnett

---

If needed Kathryn tries a question multiple times. If she still can not solve it then she asks for help as well.

She does not just keep going when these are hard, she seeks more challenge when these are too easy.

Ethan Lancaster

Ethn is very dedicated to his work. he put in a lot of time and effort outside of class time.

Cecillia Charbonneau

---

Cecillia always does her best and she willingly stepped to task on harder challenges.

Jazlynn Price

---

Jazlynn never falters or shies away when she faces a challenge. She always finds a way to get it done and to do it well.

Saya Stelter

She puts in painstaking effort into everything she does. Driven by big dreams, she always has homework done on time and studies when she doesn't understand a topic. Saya is not a natural genius, she works at it daily.

Soren Coates

---

Soren participates in tutoring, student council, and helps out in the cafe treating the junior students with kindness.

Damian August

---

He has had some setbacks with his project but he never gets flustered or upset, he just shrugs it off and tries again where other students would throw in the towel.

Mr. Dhanoa - Senior Music Student

---

Perfect attendance. Keeps trying, never gives up.
Positive attitude towards learning, encourages others.

Sam Jensen

---

Sam quietly volunteers to make the school a better place, giving up some of her lunch hours to do things I have asked of her.

Lucas Taniguiti

---

For helping feed your peers in the cafe

Zafariah Toscano, Sophie Collins, Courtney Prince
Bailey Rotzetter

---

Thank you for being kind, inclusive, and helpful members of the PHE 9 class.
Your consistent efforts are appreciated.

Ms. Trainor

---

Christine goes beyond her paid job to clean up, organize and prepare things for the food program.

I understand the mess our events can leave for janitor, not only does Christine not complain about our extra programs she makes them possible and always lends a hand.

Joey Pelton

---

Focussed. Never gives up, very receptive to learning, supportive of others. Joey always pushes through difficult tasks and takes the time to learn concepts that are challenging.

Olivia Wall

---

Prepared, follows direction, supportive, focussed.

Cleo Coates

---

Cleo has been incredibly help this year in the breakfast and lunch programs. Her leadership and dedication is commendable.

Hannah Fedato

---

Sam quietly volunteers to make the school a better place, giving up some of her lunch hours to do things I have asked of her.

Owen Thon

---

The two Owens removed and replaced the plexiglass in the vending machine.
Thank you so much.

Owen has also volunteered, given up his lunch hour, on many occasions to help out at lunch at my request, making the school a better place.

Owen Sim

The two Owens removed and replaced the plexiglass in the vending machine.
Thank you so much.

Owen is an integral part of the breakfast and lunch programs. He is always willing to donate his time and gas to drive to the Buy-Low for shopping.

Caitlyn Salopree

---

Caitlyn has voluntarily taken on the “big sister” role fro Ainsley to and from school and Blue River

Ava Schwartz and Adrian Christensen

---

I think they are inseparable!

They both buddy read. They both asked how they could volunteer at the concession and have been waking up early to provide their peers with a full meal every week.

They have a great sense of humour.

A pleasure to work with.

Mr. Whelen

---

Endlessly compassionate and cultivates an empowering and supportive classroom. He goes above and beyond in the respect he shows to his students.

Zander Richardson

---

Zander has provided assistance to those in need in the community, checking on his neighbours, shovelling snow and helping out those who are recuperating from injury and not accepting any payment. Very much appreciated.

Bailey Rotzetter

Helps me with my work.

Tries to help others, works hard.

Gives me pencils when I forget.

Helps other people in class.

Reid Muddiman

---

He participates in tutoring, student council, and One to One reading.

He takes a leadership role in keeping students fed, works well with others, takes feedback with grace.

Many students look up to him.

He is service driven.

Our school would lack part of the shine and fun if it was not for Reid
